Maple Heights Council approves applying to Safe Routes program

By Judith Goldsworth

The city of Maple Heights is taking an active interest in helping school children in the city get to and from school safely, as council approved a resolution to apply for the Safe Routes to School program at a meeting earlier this month.

The project cost is estimated at $399,268.91, and Congress has set aside monies for Safe Routes to School (SRTS) projects, administered through "The city will work closely with the Maple Heights City Schools to improve student safety as children go to and from school, which is a transportation activity eligible to receive federal funding," the resolution stated.

Mayor Annette Blackwell and City Engineer Ed Hren were authorized by council to apply for the STRS funds to ODOT. If it gets the funding, the city would pay 100 percent of the construction cost over and above the maximum amount provided by ODOT.

The report said officers saw the Jeep in the 6400 block of Heisley Avenue parked head-on with a Dodge Caravan. Officers saw four males walking from the Jeep to the Caravan who fled on foot when they saw police. Next to the Jeep, which was left running, police found a pair of jumper cables and a silver revolver. A second gun was also found in a yard on Heisley.

Private security camera footage from a nearby home showed the males running through the yard. Police found a black jacket and two gloves that were inside out in the resident's yard. The Detective Bureau is continuing the investigation.

Bedford PD offers Safe Passages program to help heroin addicts

The Bedford Police Department has announced it will participate in the Safe Passages program for residents suffering from heroin addiction.

Bedford residents can go to the Bedford Police Department, 165 Center Rd., Monday through Friday, between 8 a.m. and 4 p.m., to ask for assistance getting into a treatment program. An information packet will be completed and a treatment liaison coordinator will facilitate getting the resident into a treatment

"We are well aware of the crisis created by the heroin/fentanyl epidemic. It is our belief and commitment that we can make a difference in the community and provide an avenue for treatment," said Bedford Police Chief Kris Nietert in a press release

There are a few criteria to meet for the program. Those with insurance are instructed to bring their medical card. With questions call 440-232-7600.

New Cuyahoga County website offering help for vets

The Cuyahoga County Veterans Service Commission has initiated a new website for veterans and their families to receive information on benefits eligibility, GI home loans, government life insurance, medical care, pensions, addiction and mental health services, survivor benefits, veterans' homes and more.

The website is: cuyahogavets.org.

"We invite you to learn more about our departments and to reach out to us for no-cost assistance. It's our way of saying thank you for your outstanding service to our county," according to the county veterans' website.

'SHREK' FUN AT STATE OF SCHOOLS

Garfield Heights High School played host to the Garfield Heights Chamber of Commerce's annual State of the Schools presentation last Wednesday, held in the Center for the Performing Arts. The lunchtime event featured representatives from three schools that serve Garfield Heights and beyond, including Patrick Straffen, director of admissions and public relations from Trinity High School, Dr. Celena Roebuck, superintendent of the Cuyahoga Valley Career Center, and Superintendent Terry Olszewski from the Garfield Heights City Schools. Each of the school district leaders provided an overview of their respective schools and shared highlights from the preceding 12 months. Chamber Executive Director Gabrielle Huszarik greeted guests and provided an update on Chamber topics. Students from the GHHS Theater Department and its spring play cast of "Shrek" were on hand to greet the approximately 50 guests in attendance.

Special presentation on President Lincoln's assassination, funeral

DeJohn Funeral Homes and Crematory will host a special presentation on President Abraham Lincoln's assassination and funeral on Wednesday, May 10, at $7\,\mathrm{p.m.}$ at the DeJohn Funeral Homes & Celebrations Center, 12811 Chillicothe Rd. in Chesterland.

Everyone in the community is welcome to an open viewing of the replica coffin from 4-7 p.m. There is no cost to attend the viewing or presentation but an RSVP for the presentation is requested.

"We will relive an epic moment in history, including having a replica of the coffin in which President Lincoln is buried. Many people are not aware how elaborate his coffin was for the time or that his funeral set the standard for the modern day funeral service we know today," said Ross DeJohn III.

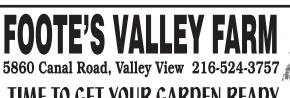

The presentation will be filled with many interesting facts about (Little), Brandy (Adam), Lincoln and his funeral procession which lasted 22 days and Stephanie (James), Adam traveled across several states - including Cleveland. Not until President John F. Kennedy did so many thousands witness a > Large funeral precessions were held at each major stop along the funeral route, as the coffin was transported from the train to the place of public viewing. Cleveland was the only city to hold its public viewing outdoors, as they did not have a building large enough to accommodate the large crowds of mourners. It is estimated that one million people viewed President Lincoln's body from the time of his death until his burial in Springfield,

> RSVP for the 7 p.m. presentation is requested online at DeJohncares.com or call 440-516-5555 for more information.

Polish Constitution Day 2017 Cuyahoga Hts.

Local residents will celebrate Polish Constitution Day, honoring the document which was the most advanced political statement of its kind in Europe, in much the same way as their ancestors honored it upon their arrival as immigrants to America in the late 19th century: with music, religious liturgies, cultural programs, street performances and sociability.

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

Saturday, April 29th: The Polish Constitution Day Concert at the Shrine Church of St. Stanislaus, featuring classical and contemporary music performed on the church's Steinway by pianist Konrad Binienda, along with colleagues from the Cleveland Institute of Music, at 7 p.m. Freewill offering.

Sunday, April 30th: The Polish Constitution Day Mass at St. Stanislaus, accompanied by brass and percussion, 10 a.m.; the Polish American Cultural Center's Sunday Brunch, 6501 Lansing Ave., food for purchase, 11 a.m. to 1 p.m.; the Polish Constitution Day Parade, stepping off at 1:30 p.m. from the west end of Fleet Avenue at Washington Park and proceeding eastward to East 65th St., then turning south for closing ceremonies at the Cultural Center on Lansing Avenue. Create a parade float! Call 216-469-4806 to participate as an individual, family or group; Parade after-party at 3 p.m., featuring performances by parade the dispatch center at a total artists, music by DJs John and Mark Sleszynski and food for cost of $14,200. purchase.

Wednesday, May 3rd: Polish Constitution Day Reception at and Marilyn Duszynski to the the Polish American Cultural Center, with cultural readings, music and food, beginning at 7 p.m. Free.

Friday, May 5th: Four Eagles Award Banquet of St. Stanislaus Church, beginning at 6 p.m., to be held at the Tremont Cityside Ballroom. Honoree is the late Cleveland Housing Court Judge Raymond Pianka. For tickets call 216-341-9091.

Later in May: Polish Constitution Ceremony in University Circle, which this year will be temporarily relocated from its normal location at the Kosciuszko Monument due to construction of the Nord Family Greenway.

The Cleveland Polish Constitution Celebration is for everyone. The planning committee invites individuals and organizations to be part of this remarkable Cleveland event as volunteers, donors, paraders and visitors. For more information, call 216-469-4806.

G.H. Historical Society seeking members to help revitalize museum

Calling all history buffs. The Garfield Heights Historical Society needs new members to rebuild its membership and update its collections, joining the fine group already working hard to keep

They are seeking adults who want to preserve the interesting history of Garfield Heights and students to update its information and utilize the current computer programs available. Both adults and students are also needed to help revitalize the museum, located at 5405 Turney Rd. No experience required - they

Council news

The Village of Cuyahoga Heights Council met last Wednesday, April 12, and passed the following:

- •A resolution to renew the village's service agreement at a cost of $2300 per year with Stephen Campbell & Associates, Inc. for maintenance services for the police dispatch audio
- •An ordinance to purchase a one-year subscription to the Lexipol Risk Management Program for the police department at a cost of $6240.
- Purchase of two new Ricoh copiers from Ace Business Solutions for the police department administrative offices and
- Appointment of Lois Henley Cuyahoga County Tax Incentive Review Council.
- •Directing the mayor to proceed with the appropriation of Permanent Parcel number 522-23-046 property for the Bacci Park Trail Project.
- Authorizing participation by the village in the Ohio Department of Transportation winter contract for road salt.
- Motion to instruct the engineer to go out for bids on the demolition of 5037 E. 71 St., 5045 E. 71 St., and 4937 E. 72

Clothing recycling encouraged in G.H.

Garfield Heights residents can recycle clothing, shoes and household textiles using the city's free curbside program. The program is separate from the Kimble curbside collection, yet occurs the same day.

Once a resident determines that items are no longer useful, by the company at no cost, and put it on the curb the same day as their regular rubbish pick up. Bedding, belts and ties, hats and gloves, stuffed animals and more can be recycled.

Collected items are sorted and graded for condition. Top quality materials, approximately 20 percent of what residents no longer want, are sold to local thrift stores. The vast majority of clothing collected, about 80 percent, will not be resold in the United States, so it is further sorted for international export or broken down for raw

Only five percent ends up as waste. The other 95 percent is exported as secondhand clothing, converted to other materials such as cleaning rags for industrial and residential use, or recycled into fiber used in home insulation, carpet padding, etc.

Residents can pick up Simple Recycling bags at the Garfield Heights Civic Center, 5407 Turney Rd. For additional information about the program, contact Simple Recycling at 866-835-5068.

Residents also can contact Pat Salemi at Garfield Heights City Hall, 216-475-1100, ext. 2425, e-mail psalemi@ garfieldhts.org. Simple Recycling also benefits the Garfield Heights Family Resource Cen-
