Local contractor steps up when G.H. home becomes engulfed in flames

By Amber Weisbarth

Sarah Savnik, a resident of Garfield Heights, thanks a Good Samaritan who took it upon himself to go into the fire-ravaged home she rents on E. 111th St. to see if he could save anyone who might be inside.

Even Dang, a contractor who was doing work at a home across the street from Savnik's, saw the home had caught fire around 9:30 a.m. that morning. According to a fire report from Garfield Heights Lt. Dave McKee, Dang kicked open the front door and quickly searched the first and second floor for occupants before smoke conditions drove him out. Thanks to the front door being open, the family dog Harleigh, was able to run outside.

Savnik said Dang knew children lived at the home because he had been working across the street for a few days and saw her kids playing outside. "He is truly our hero," she said. Savnik has three children, ages 4, 8 and 11.

'I was just trying to do the right thing," Dang, 32, said. "I was born and raised in Cleveland and I hope people start helping each other out in this community we live in." he said.

Savnik said the morning started out with a celebration of her daughter's fourth birthday, and after opening presents she left with her children around 8:30 a.m. She received a call from a neighbor about an hour later that her back porch was on fire. Savnik said she's also thankful for her good neighbors, who called the Garfield Heights Fire Department and tried to extinguish the flames with a garden hose.

The fire spread to inside the home and the attic area. Lt. McKee said one firefighter was taken to Marymount Hospital with symptoms of heat exhaustion and another reported he was struck on the head by a large section of plaster from a ceiling being pulled on the second floor. He was later taken to Marymount Hospital to be treated for a head injury.

The cause of the fire is still undetermined, officials said. Savnik said her home and belongings have been damaged by smoke and flames and the home is not liveable. She and her family are currently staying at a family member's home in Garfield Heights until she and her family find a new place to live.

Independence Garfield Heights Council passes rezoning issue at special meeting Monday

A special meeting of Garfield Heights Council was held Monday night at which several parcels of land which were zoned single family residential were rezoned to industrial park use on McCracken Road in the 13500, 13400 and 13300 blocks.

According to the legislation, JCorp, LLC, MRDP, LLC and Jay Brzezinski are the current owners of the parcels on McCracken and intend to develop them into a U-11B Industrial Park.

Voters in Garfield Heights will have the final say on the rezoning issue, however, as it will appear as a proposed zoning amendment on the November 7, 2017 ballot.

Also passed by council Monday night were two emergency ordinances, one to participate in the Northeast Ohio Regional Sewer District program for the Midwest Neighborhood Storm/Sanitary Sewer System Reconstruction Project Phase II to secure grant funds requested, and the other to buy one road rescue squad vehicle.

No dog show this year in G.H.

Garfield Heights Recreation Department Director Bob Dobies regretfully told The Neighborhood News yesterday that the annual Kids Dog Show will not go on this year after 40 years in existence. Famed Fox-8 meteorologist Dick Goddard, now retired, emceed the show for 28 of those years.

Dobies said that due to dwindling participation, finances and Goddard's health, he had to make the tough

Goddard had reportedly suffered a hip fracture last year resulting from a fall.

"I don't like to cut any program," Dobies said, "but it was a decision I had to make. We hope to revisit plans to bring the show back next year."

G.H. Town Hall meeting

Garfield Heights United will host a Town Hall meeting with Mayor Vic Collova and Police Chief Robert Byrne on Wednesday, Aug. 9, at 6 p.m. at the Civic Center, 5407 Turney Rd.

Several issues that deal with safety will be discussed, as well as the direction the city will be heading once the election is over. A judge from the Garfield Heights court will be in attendance and an invitation has been extended to the city Prosecutor's office.

Transforming program for troubled youth offered

What can be done to turn around the lives of young adults, ages 18-24, who have been incarcerated or involved in gang activity? Can practical training and the will to change transform a troubled youth into to Resilience. a productive person with a good job?

That's the goal of a pilot program now being offered by Boys & Girls Clubs of Cleveland and Resilience Capital Partners and supported by Cleveland-area businesses called Pathway

Pathway is an intensive six-month career readiness and mentoring program that combines job skills and literacy instruction with extracurricular activities. It is based on innovative research on gang intervention conducted by the late Dr. Irving Spergel and sponsored by the U.S. Department of Justice's Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention that showed that the most effective intervention strategies combine policing, mentoring and social ser-

Those who complete the Pathway training will be eligible for employment with sponsors of the program, which includes large and small Cleveland-area employers.
