Black Walnut Fest this Saturday in Garfield Hts.

The Garfield Heights Historical Society is sponsoring its first-ever Black Walnut Fest this Saturday, Oct. 14, from 11:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the museum, 5405 Turney Rd., Garfield Heights.

There will be games for children of all ages, raffles, music by the AirChiefs and songs by the Mannerchor - German Singing Society, a Pumpkin Contest (bring your own carved pumpkins to the event), apple cider, black walnut desserts and other treats, pizza and hot dogs available for purchase, and a Black Walnut Baking Contest with a panel of five celebrity judges, including Garfield Heights Mayor Vic Collova.

On behalf of the community, the mayor has even proclaimed Saturday, Oct. 14, as Black Walnut Day throughout the city of Garfield Heights.

For Saturday's schedule of events, see the Black Walnut Fest ad on Page 3 of this newspaper.

There will be something for everyone at this "nutty" event, so stop by for some fall fun in Garfield Heights.

Bedford residents speak on parking restrictions passed for Norann Circle

By Judith Goldsworth

The concerns of residents on Norann Circle over recent parking restrictions on the street sparked an extended discussion on other issues at the Bedford Council meeting last week, including feelings of being "targeted."

Council recently voted on placing a parking ban on Norann from 7 a.m. to 4 p.m. during the day to improve safety and access to the street, officials stated.

Mayor Stan Koci, Councilman Greg Pozar and other officials stated that they did not view the situation in terms of singling out individuals but as a response to complaints from other residents regarding large vehicles being parked on the street. Parking restrictions, they said, were in response to safety concerns as well as increasing access for trash pickup and other services.

Law Director John Montello stated, "I think we should put this on work session for the next meeting. I don't think this was actually an ordinance." Koci agreed, stating, "This was a safety issue, it wasn't an ordinance."

Officials reiterated they would discuss the issue in the coming weeks.

Legislation acted upon

Also at last week's meeting, council voted to place two ordinances on second reading for further discussion: one to eliminate hospitalization, dental, vision and prescription drug benefits for the future mayor and

New bishop to say Mass at St. Stanislaus

The new bishop of the Cleveland Catholic Diocese, Rev. Nelson Perez, will celebrate Mass at St. Stanislaus Church in Slavic Village on Wednesday, Oct. 18, at 7 p.m., as part of a series of special Masses in the various regions of the diocese.

After Mass everyone is welcome to a reception for Bishop Perez in the Social Center on Baxter Avenue, where there will be an opportunity to meet and greet him.

This event is being held for the parishes and people of the Cleveland Southeast and Central East District of the diocese.

Halloween Festival Sat. for Warner-Turney kids

A free Halloween Festival for residents of the Warner-Turney neighborhood will be held this Saturday, Oct. 14, from 1-3 p.m. at Mill Creek Falls Family Park, 8306 Tioga Ave. at Warner Rd., in Cleveland. The festival is for children ages 12 and under.

There will be entertainment from Bloodview Heights Haunted House's kid-friendly program, face painting, snacks and drinks, and a surprise give for each child under 12. There is no costume contest, but costumes may be worn. In order to have your face painted, organizers suggest no face masks.

The event is sponsored by the Warner Turney Neighborhood Organization and funded by Neighborhood Connections, a program of The Cleveland Foundation. The event is free and is for children living in the Warner-Turney neighborhood only.

Citizens Bank in M.H. robbed yesterday

The Citizens Bank at 15765 Broadway Ave. in Maple Heights was robbed Tuesday morning, as confirmed by Special Agent Vicki Anderson with the Cleveland Division of the FBI.

According to a press release from Maple Heights Police, the suspect is described as a dark skinned, black male, about 6 feet tall, with a slim build. He was last seen wearing a dark green hoodie, tan pants, black bicyclist-type gloves, and a yellow/green high visibility safety vest. The male was armed with a black semi-automatic handgun. The suspect fled the area on foot with an undisclosed amount of money. He was carrying a bag across his shoulder with the money. A dye pack in the stolen money did go off while in the suspect's possession.

Anyone with information on the robbery is urged to contact either the Maple Heights Detective Bureau at 216-587-9624 or Detectives@mhpd-ohio.com or the FBI office at 216-522-1400.

Information can also be submitted to Crime Stoppers by calling 216-252-7463, texting TIP657 plus your message to 274637, or online at www.25crime.com.

Maple Hts. to apply for grant for transportation study in Southgate area

By Judith Goldsworth

In the interest of "studying the connectivity and redevelopment of transportation corridors" in the area of the Southgate USA shopping center, Maple Heights Council approved a resolution applying for a NOACA (Northeast Ohio Area-wide Coordinating Agency) grant at its meeting last week.

Called a Transportation For Livable Communities Initiative (TLCI) grant, NOACA will pay 100 percent of the funds necessary to undertake this study if the city is successful in securing the grant, according to the legislation.

The grant would fund study of not only the "major arterials" around Southgate, such as Warrensville Center, Libby and Northfield roads, but also of "collector" roads, such as Southgate Park Boulevard and Maple Heights Boulevard, that take local residential traffic to the major roads.

Watershed alliance

Council also passed a resolution approving the Mill Creek Watershed Partnership (MCWP) alliance with the West Creek Preservation Committee, doing business as the West Creek Conservancy (WCC), based in Parma, to Construction LLC to demolish property at 38 Gould Avenue, at a cost of $7,800. City Manager Mike Mallis stated, "This property has been a serious nuisance for upwards of four years."

"It is still our intention to demolish it" he said. "However, we did exchange communication with them last week regarding items that we must see in good faith completed if we are going to work with them to allow them to save the property."

Council also passed a resolution for Bedford's annual contract with the Cuyahoga County Board of Health for $53,865, to provide health services to city residents as required by law.

Council also passed legislation to amend a previous ordinance regarding pay ranges in the city. Mallis stated this ordinance was intended to clean up the existing legislation as well as to add new positions in the city, including a business development liaison and an assistant finance director.

"These are not pay raises for the people, these are just a starting range that we can use to hire people at," Koci stated.

Trick or Treating discussed

Pozar brought up the possibility of eliminating Trick or Treating, usually held from 6-8 p.m. on Halloween night in the city, citing increasing safety concerns. As an alternative, he suggested a daytime gathering in a community facility that would serve the same purpose of allowing kids to dress in costumes, collect candy, and have fun in a safer environment.

Announcements

Mallis said leaf collection in the city would begin this week, with trucks expected to pick up leaves throughout the season. Residents should put leaves on their tree lawns for pickup.

Mallis also stated that the city and police department were cracking down on unregistered solicitors. There had also been reports of individuals "that have nothing to do with the city, who are acknowledging that they're working with the city and that we have actually seen trying to enter a home. We arrested that individual last week," Mallis continued.

The mayor pointed out that only those solicitors representing religious or political causes are exempt from registering. The idea of a special lanyard for registered solicitors to wear was being considered, Mallis said.

The ordinances, if passed at a coming meeting, will not apply to the current terms of these offices, and are intended as a cost-saving measure, officials stated.

Defeated was an ordinance for the city to accept the donation of property at 83 Henry Street from the owners. Koci stated, "We found out some issues with this piece of property and we wish to defeat that tonight and put it in the county's hands."

Council passed an ordinance for a contract with TRW

Leaf pickup begins Oct. 16th in Maple Hts.

Leaf collection in Maple Heights will begin the week of October 16th and will continue through early December. Each street will get at least three pickups.

Because it is impossible to predict when and how fast the leaves fall, how many residents will have piles ready, the size of the piles and the weather, the city does not have a set schedule of when pick-up will be on a specific street. Three-Z Supply Co., Inc. will work generally from the east side of the city to the west side. As crews get all the way across the city, if sufficient leaves are available, they will return to the east side and begin the next pass.

Some important tips for residents:

- Get leaves out as soon as possible. Once a house is passed Three-Z will not come back until the next pass.
- Do not place trash, sticks or grass in the leaf piles. These can damage equipment and Three-Z will not pick up piles containing sticks, grass or garbage.
- Three-Z will not collect leaves that have been placed in bags. Simply rake leaves into a pile on the curb and they will pick them up.
- Leaves must be piled at the curb. Three-Z cannot collect piles more than 10 feet from the edge of the road.

Those with questions should contact Three-Z directly at their leaf collection line, 216-524-6668.

Maple Hts. to apply

The Mill Creek watershed, which includes Maple Heights, also encompasses part of the city of Cleveland and the eastern suburbs of Garfield Heights, Cuyahoga Heights, Warrensville Heights, North Randall, Shaker Heights, Beachwood and Highland Heights.

Mill Creek makes its way through these communities before emptying into the Cuyahoga River at the Cuyahoga Heights-Garfield Heights border, according to information released by Cuyahoga River Restoration, a nonprofit non-governmental organization dedicated to restoring and protecting the environmental quality of the Cuyahoga River and Lake Erie tributary watersheds.

Approval of the resolution authorizes Blackwell to enter into any agreements for the alliance, upon the recommendation of City Engineer Ed Hren and approved by Law Director Frank Consolo. After the alliance, MCWP will stop operating as an independent entity, but will continue operating as a program of the WCC, under the same name, Mill Creek Watershed Partnership, according to the Alliance Agreement document released by the city.

Sewer project costs rise

Council approved a resolution to authorize a change order in the amount of $10,869.66 for the contract with Nerone & Sons, Inc. for a sewer improvement project in the Cato, Thomas and Donnybrook neighborhood.

In July 2016, council passed the original contract for the work, at a cost of $313,955. But the increase was needed as Hren "had directed that additional work be performed as required, to repair additional sections of sewer discovered during the process of making repairs," the legislation stated.

Declared nuisances

Council passed two separate resolutions declaring properties at 16901 Broadway Avenue and 21309 Franklin Road as "nuisances," due to structural and maintenance issues that present health and safety hazards to the surrounding neighborhoods.

The Broadway property, known as the VFW Hall building, "has been determined to be structurally unsound and unsafe, due to a vehicle striking it on September 20, 2017," while the Franklin property, a private dwelling, "has been determined to be structurally unsound and unsafe due to years of neglect," according to the legislation.

Passage of the resolutions authorizes the city to abate the nuisances, which can be carried out in the form of demolishing and razing the structures, and/or revoking certificates of occupancy.

Two resolutions for Collective Bargaining Agreements between the city and the Ohio Patrolmen's Benevolent Association for four full-time and three part-time corrections officers for the three years from July 1, 2017 through June 30, 2020, were placed on second reading for further discussion.

Special meeting tonight

Council will meet tonight, Wednesday, Oct. 11, at 6:30 p.m. in Room 7 of Maple Heights City Hall, 5353 Lee Rd., in an Executive Session to interview applicants and select candidates to complete the unexpired terms of two positions on the Planning and Zoning Commission.

GHWC salad luncheon set

The Garfield Heights Woman's Club will host its annual Salad Luncheon on Saturday, Oct. 21, at the Civic Center, 5407 Turney Rd.

The club has honored and recognized over 50 outstanding ladies of the community at past luncheons, and this year will honor a past U.S. president's wife.

First Lady Lucretia Garfield (portrayed by Debbie Weinkamer), the guest speaker, will talk about her marriage to President James A. Garfield, the 20th President of the United States, who was born in Cuyahoga County.

His presidency was impactful, but cut short after 200 days when he was shot and mortally wounded.

Salads will be made by club members along with over 15 baskets which will be raffled off. Basket donations are always welcome.

Proceeds from the luncheon will help support the GHWC Scholarship Fund. Last year, three $500 scholarships were awarded to high school seniors residing and going to school in Garfield Heights.

Garfield Heights First Lady Jeannie Collova, along with former First Lady Jean Donovan (Jeannie's mother) and former First Lady Eileen Longo will also be in attendance.

For a fun-filled afternoon and more information about this event, call Treasurer Joan at 216-587-7018. Advance tickets only; table reservations available for groups of eight.

Block watch

The East 63rd Street Block Club will meet Thursday, Oct. 12, at 7 p.m. in the basement of St. Stanislaus School, 6615 Forman Ave., Cleveland. A 50/50 raffle will be held.

Pulaski Day Observance Saturday in Tremont

All are invited to the 2017 Pulaski Memorial Observance on Saturday, Oct. 14, at 11 a.m. in the gazebo at Lincoln Park in Cleveland's Tremont area. If weather does not permit, meet at PLAV Post #30, opposite the park, at 1037 Starkweather Ave.

The 238th memorial service commemorating the untimely death of General Kazimierz (Casimir) Pulaski was moved to Lincoln Park this year in consideration of the Polish veterans posts located in Tremont and also in remembrance of the Polish organizations that were part of the fabric of Tremont in the near past.

General Pulaski came from Poland in 1777 to aid Americans in the War of Independence. He was distinguished in the Battle of Brandywine by saving the life of General George Washington and is known as the "Father of the American Calvary."

Commemorative ceremonies are held at the Pulaski

Memorial in Washington D.C., with a joint observance in Poland every October 11th, when the U.S. Ambassador to Poland journeys from Warsaw to Warka, to place a wreath at Pulaski's birthplace.

The Cleveland Memorial's principal speaker will be Richard Romaniuk, Ph.D., of Case Western Reserve University's Mandel School of Applied Social Sciences.

A reception will follow at the PLAV Post #30. Polonia Foundation Director Robert S. Rybka is chairing the Pulaski Day events.

Cleveland Mayor Frank Jackson, Cleveland Councilmen Tony Brancatelli and Kerry McCormack, other dignitaries and members of American Legion Post 627, Polish Legion of American Veterans and Polish Army Veterans have all been invited to the observance.

Ward 12 Dems meet

The 12th Ward Democratic Club will meet Wednesday, Oct. 18, at 7:30 p.m. at Gino's, 1314 Denison Ave., Cleveland. Candidates on the November ballot will speak and yard signs will be available. Refreshments served. All welcome.
