Mayor Vic Collova sworn in at G.H. council meeting

With the swearing in Monday evening of Garfield Heights Mayor Vic Collova at the regular meeting of city council, the seven-member council and the city's top job have all officially been returned to the incumbents in Garfield Heights.

Thoughts and prayers were directed to the Garfield Heights jailer who was injured last Friday morning when a prisoner in the City Jail overpowered him and escaped. The suspect later died in a one-car crash on I-176 North near I-480 West.

In the Comments by Citizens portion of Monday night's meeting, a Darlington Avenue man commended Police Chief Robert Byrne on how efficient the police were in the escaped prisoner incident and wanted to be a part of a possible fundraiser for the injured jailer.

Byrne said the jailer was "sore but doing fine" and will be covered under Worker's Comp. The chief also thanked the neighboring police departments and State Highway Patrol for their help.

Only two pieces of legislation were passed Monday.

Emergency ordinances to apply for grant funding to upgrade Debelak Park and appropriate expenditures for the 2017 fiscal year were passed unanimously.

Man shot near Francis Ave.

An 18-year-old Cleveland resident was shot in the chest while in the passenger seat of a car traveling in the E. 55th St. and Francis Ave. area early yesterday morning, according to a Cleveland police report.

The driver of the car said he and the 18-year-old passenger were headed towards Newburgh Heights around 2:50 a.m. Tuesday morning when they noticed a white or silver car behind them. They continued driving southbound on E. 55th St. when someone in the light-colored car began shooting at them near Francis Ave.

The vehicle sped up and got next to them, then began shooting again at the passenger side of the car, according to the report. The driver said he eventually stopped at the Rally's restaurant at E. 65th and Broadway in Slavic Village for help.

The 18-year-old was shot in the right arm which travelled into his chest. According to the report, the teen was not breathing at the time paramedics arrived, and he was taken to MetroHealth Medical Center where staff said he was in critical but stable condition.

Coin flip may decide council race in Cuy. Hts.

According to the official results announced yesterday by the Cuyahoga County Board of Elections for the November 7th general election, Cuyahoga Heights Councilwoman Lois Henley and challenger Rick Centa are tied for a spot on the Village Council.

Unofficial results published November 8th had Centa ahead of Henley by only one vote.

Board of Elections media spokesman Mike West told The Neighborhood News that the tie in Cuyahoga Heights has triggered an automatic recount set for Thursday, Dec. 7, at 2 p.m. He said if the recount still shows the Henley-Centa tie, the race will be decided by a flip of a coin.

Man shot near Francis Ave.

Police said there were two both back passenger door entry bullet holes in the front passenger door. There were also two exit holes through the rear hatch door, a bullet hole through the backseat driver's side headrest, and the back hatch window and both back passenger door windows were shot out. Police found two casings inside the car and the driver admitted the 18-year-old had a gun and was exchanging fire with the suspect vehicle, according to the report. The driver said the teen threw the gun out the window but was not sure where.

Police could not find the gun along the alleged path of travel, according to the report, but did find one casing and bullet fragment on E. 55th near Francis, four casings near Bragg Rd. and broken glass throughout the southbound lanes on E. 55th St. near both intersections. The Fourth District Detective Bureau was called to follow up with the investigation.

Escaped prisoner dies in car crash

By Amber Weisbarth

Donnie Thomas, 34, of Sagamore Hills, died in a car crash last Friday after escaping from Garfield Heights City Jail and fleeing from officers, according to Garfield Heights police.

Around midnight last Friday, Nov. 24, GHPD was dispatched to the Walgreens at Turney and Rockside for a robbery. Employees said a man came into the store just before closing time, walked to the drink cooler and may have stolen a beverage, then left the store. A short time later he came back in and asked to use the bathroom, then demanded money from the employee while keeping his left hand in his coat pocket as if he had a gun, according to the police report. The employee complied and gave the man over $280 in cash.

hended him in a backyard as Thomas. Police said no on Havana Road after a weapon was found, but of-brief foot chase and he was handcuffed and identified officers did find a Walgreens (Continued on Page 8)

Escaped prisoner dies

bag containing nearly $300 in cash near Thomas in the yard. Employees of Walgreens positively identified him and he was taken to City Jail.

An officer at City Jail said he was dressing Thomas around 7:50 a.m. Friday and was suddenly attacked and overpowered by him, according to the police report. The jailer said Thomas took his pepper spray and used it on him then assaulted him, then took his keys and exited the jail through the sallyport. The jailer was taken to Marymount Hospital to be treated for his injuries.

It was reported that Thomas fled eastbound on Oakpark Boulevard and during the search, a resident of Shady Oak Boulevard called police and said a man matching Thomas' description used a brick to break a window pane on her side door in an attempt to get inside. After the attempt failed he fled eastbound just prior to police arrival.

Officers from Maple Heights, Independence, Valley View and Ohio State Patrol were called to assist in the search for Thomas and a Ready Notify alert was broadcast around 9:30 a.m.

Around 11:20 a.m. that same day, Maple Heights police received a call about a suspicious person believed to be Thomas asking to use someone's phone on Ramage Avenue, according to dispatch logs. A resident of Maple Heights also said a man matching Thomas' description stole her purse and her vehicle and fled. About 10 minutes later, Giant Eagle in City View in Garfield Heights contacted the woman and said her purse had been found there.

As police arrived at Giant Eagle, they saw Thomas in the stolen vehicle leaving the parking lot. Officers followed him onto I-480 westbound and watched as he weaved in and out of traffic. After reaching speeds of over 100 miles per hour officers lost sight of the fleeing car and the pursuit was terminated. But Thomas kept driving onto 176 northbound and crashed. He was ejected from the vehicle and was taken to MetroHealth Medical Center where he was pronounced dead at 12:15 p.m.

As police searched the areas where Thomas had been spotted, the K9 unit found a cell phone in a backyard on Shady Oak Boulevard as well as various gift cards and IDs belonging to the jailer Thomas attacked.

Another cell phone and the jailer's keys were found in the bottom of a dumpster behind Skillz Barbershop on Turney Rd. near City Jail.
