Man held after CPD find Meech Ave. cannabis grow site

Owen Rex, 55, was arrested by Cleveland police last Friday after they found 200 pounds of marijuana inside a property he owns at 10001 Meech Ave. in Cleveland, according to Sgt. Jennifer Ciaccia with the Cleveland Police Department.

Ciaccia said approximately 200 pounds of marijuana was found, which included about 90 pounds of harvested, prepped and bagged marijuana, plus over 250 live plants.

The man will be charged with violation of state drug laws among others, according to Ciaccia. Rex has been bound over to the grand jury. Court records show charges pending include trafficking in drugs, receiving stolen property and possession of criminal tools.

Cleveland man being charged in Morton homicide

Gregory Watts, 57, of Cleveland, is being charged with aggravated murder in the death of 31-year-old Tasha Kushner at her home on Morton Avenue last month, according to Cleveland Municipal Court records.

Kushner was found dead in her home in the 6100 block of Morton Avenue in the North Broadway neighborhood of Slavic Village on March 6th. According to the Cuyahoga County Medical Examiner, she died from blunt force injuries to the head and neck.

Watts is being held on a $1 million bond; his arraignment is set for this Friday.

Teen wanted for attempted murder turns himself in

Robert Jackson, 18, of Cleveland, turned himself into the Garfield Heights Police Department after a family member saw his photo and the article in last week's issue of The Neighborhood News, according to GHPD Chief Robert Byrne.

Jackson was wanted by GHPD in connection with the shooting of a 17-year-old male on April 2nd on North Parkway Avenue in Garfield Heights, police said. Byrne said he has been charged with attempted murder and is being held on a $500,000 bond.

ASGC Chili Cook-off April 25th

The Autism Society of Greater Cleveland will host its 13th annual Chili Cook-Off next Wednesday, April 25, from 6-9:30 p.m. at the Holiday Inn, 6001 Rockside Rd., Independence.

Attendees will enjoy all-you-can-chili from over 40 professional and amateur chefs, live music, prizes, silent auctions and more. Special guests include Fox 8 News personality Todd Meany and the Ace Molar Band, and Ed "Flash" Ferenc as MC.

Tickets available in advance for $25 at eventbrite.com (search Autism Society of Greater Cleveland Chili Cook-Off) or $30 at the door. All proceeds will help Greater Cleveland families with autism.

Boy dies after falling into Mill Creek Falls

J'Meirre Williams, 10, of Cleveland, died Saturday at MetroHealth Medical Center after he was pulled out of the waterway at Mill Creek Falls in Slavic Village, according to a press release from the Cleveland Metroparks.

On Saturday, April 14, around 2 p.m., Metroparks rangers, along with Cleveland police, Cleveland fire and Cleveland EMS, responded to a call for two juveniles who had fallen into the waterway at Mill Creek Falls, 8385 Webb Terrace, in the Warner-Turney area.

Cleveland firefighters entered the water and pulled Williams out. He was then taken to MetroHealth Medical Center, where he later passed away. The 16-year-old female who was also on scene did not suffer life-threatening injuries, according to the press release.

The incident currently remains under investigation by Cleveland Metroparks rangers.

HIGH CLASS HELP

The Kiwanis Club of South East Cleveland held its annual Pancake Breakfast last Sunday at Holy Name Church in Slavic Village and this year had a classically-trained chef at the griddle! Shown above flipping pancakes is Jeremy Mathews, a graduate of Brandon Chrostowski's EDWINS Leadership & Restaurant Institute. Brandon and his family also stopped by Holy Name to support Kiwanis and his father-in-law, Bob Deskins of Lightning Demolition, a longtime Kiwanian and local civic leader.

Under the leadership of SE Kiwanis President Jerry Seppelt, the breakfast raised needed money for the many children's programs Kiwanis supports in Slavic Village. Interested in joining a great organization devoted to helping kids? Email jseppelt@aol.com.

END OF AN ERA

The old Polish Village bar, at the corner of East 71st and Fullerton in Slavic Village, was demolished last Friday, after years of the building being vacant and deteriorated. Civic leaders hope to restore its iconic sign and find a home for it somewhere along Fleet Avenue.

Community police reports

By Amber Weisbarth

(The following information was obtained from filed police reports and police dispatch logs.)

CLEVELAND

Theft from Auto

On April 11th, around 10:25 p.m., police arrested a 38-year-old Cleveland resident for breaking into vehicles.

Police were originally called to the area of E. 65th St. and Chambers Ave. for multiple theft from auto reports. Surveillance video showed a suspect with short dreadlocks wearing a gray winter coat and tan boots breaking car windows with a screwdriver. While on patrol in the E. 67th and Chambers area police saw a man walking down the street fitting that description and he was stopped. He was carrying a Home Depot bag and a Marshall's bag and had fresh blood on his face. He claimed he had purchased the items in the bags from a gas station.

Officers then drove around the area to check if any cars had been broken into and found a car with a shattered window in the 3600 block of E. 69th St. There were pry marks on the car and a screwdriver was lying on the ground. Police were able to speak to the owner, who said items missing from her car included a Home Depot bag and Marshall's bag, as well as her wallet, checkbook and cell phone. Police found her wallet and checkbook on the sidewalk on Baxter and Forman aves., and found the suspect was in possession of her cell phone. He was arrested for breaking and entering, trespassing, theft and possessing criminal tools.

GARFIELD HTS.

Aggravated Robbery

A resident of E. 139th St. told police she was driving home on April 10, around 10:25 p.m., when she noticed she was being followed by a black vehicle. She told police that she pulled all the way into her driveway and as she was getting out of the car, she was approached by two males with guns. They demanded she give them everything she had and she complied, handing over her purse and car keys.

One of the males then got in the driver's seat and attempted to start the car but she had locked the steering wheel. As the man was struggling with the car, she noticed a third male waiting in the black vehicle. The second suspect ran towards the waiting car and she was able to run into her backyard. She then watched the man give up on her car and run towards the suspect vehicle which then fled towards E. 131st St.

She said the males were not wearing masks and looked to be about 14-16 years old. Police searched the area for the suspects and suspect vehicle with negative results.

Felonious Assault

A Maple Heights woman said she was at Bonkers Bar on Turney Rd. on April 15th, around 2:15 a.m., when a female patron pulled her hair to start an altercation and another female punched the Maple Heights woman's cousin in the mouth. She said Bonkers' staff was able to break up the fight and kicked everyone out of the bar, and one of the women involved in the altercation brandished a firearm and began shooting into the air outside. The Maple Heights woman said she then tried to leave the area in her car but the unknown woman jumped onto the hood of her car and began banging on the window with the gun, threatening to kill her. She said she was eventually able to leave the scene without further incident.

Police saw damage to the woman's car hood and a large bullet hole in the top of the trunk where bullet fragments were collected as evidence. She gave police a description of the shooter and police were to check security camera footage at the bar.

Shots Fired

Police were called to the 12500 block of Thornhurst Ave. for a report of shots fired on April 7, around 3:20 a.m. Officers collected a spent shell casing on Thornhurst just before MLK Blvd., and a second shell casing on MLK just north of Thornhurst. Police searched the area for damaged property or anyone with injuries with negative results.

Suspicious Activity

A resident of the 5500 block of Briarcliff Dr. told police his surveillance cameras caught footage of a man in his backyard trying to get into his vehicle on April 13th, around 2 a.m. The suspect did not gain entry into the car and left the yard heading north.

Police had been called to the 11900 block of Derby Rd. about a half hour earlier and spoke to a resident who said his security camera also showed a man trying to break into his car. Police believe it was the same man in both cases.

MAPLE HTS.

Theft from Auto

• A resident of the 5100 block of Theodore St. said someone broke into his car by breaking the window and stole his gun sometime overnight between March 30th and March 31st.

• A resident of the 19100 block of McCracken Rd. said her vehicle was broken into overnight between March 30th and March 31st and her GPS had been stolen. The vehicle's back passenger window had been broken out to gain entry.

Blood donor opportunities

The American Red Cross encourages eligible donors to give blood during National Volunteer Month this April. Donating blood is a simple way for those who are short on time to make a life-changing difference. Upcoming donation opportunities include:

Independence: Friday, April 20, 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. at Kent State University College of Podiatric Medicine, 6000 Rockside Woods Blvd. North; Monday, April 23, 1-7 p.m., Independence Community Center, 6363 Selig Dr.

Garfield Heights: Wednesday, April 25, 1-6 p.m., Marymount Hospital, 12300 McCracken Rd.

Cleveland: Thursday, April 26, 6 a.m. to 4 p.m., Dave McCall Union Hall, 3421 Independence Rd.

All blood types are currently needed. Donation appointments can also be scheduled by calling 1-800-RED CROSS (1-800-733-2767). A blood donor card or driver's license or two other forms of identification are required at check-in.

Individuals who are 17 years of age in most states, weigh at least 110 pounds and are in generally good health may be eligible to donate blood at any of the locations mentioned above.

Hazardous waste roundup, shredding in Garfield Hts.

The annual Household Hazardous Waste Collection in Garfield Heights will begin at the end of this month.

Bring hazardous waste to the Garfield Heights Service Garage, 13600 McCracken Rd., during the following times:

Monday-Friday, April 23-27 and April 30-May 4, from 7:30 a.m. to 3 p.m.; and Saturday, May 5, from 9 a.m. to noon. There will also be a free document shredding event from 9 a.m. to noon on May 5th at the service garage.

Hazardous waste items that will be accepted include oil-based paint, pesticides, batteries, anti-freeze, household products, motor oil, computers, etc. Latex paint will not be accepted.

For additional information contact the Service Department at 216-475-3373.

The city of Maple Heights had two cases last week where a black male made advances toward juvenile females and groped them on their way to school, according to a press release from the Maple Heights Police Department.

Police said the first incident happened on Monday, April 9, around 6:40 a.m. at Stafford Park, 5400 Mayville Ave. The male approached a 13-year-old girl while she was walking to school through the parking lot, according to the press release. The suspect approached the victim, grabbed her, and touched her inappropriately while she was walking. He told her how good looking she was and told her to keep walking. The male fled when a car drove by through the parking lot.

Maple Heights officers were called to the area and searched for the suspect but were unable to locate him, according to the release, which stated they did gather some relevant evidence.

The second incident happened Friday, April 13, at 7:45 a.m. A 17-year-old girl was dropped off close to the high school on Mustang Way and was subsequently approached by the suspect male from behind who once again groped the victim while walking along with her and telling her she was pretty, the release said.

The female victim was able to get away and call her father who had dropped her off. The father called the police and responded to his daughter's location. The father witnessed the suspect male who then fled.

Officers had been in the area on patrol and quickly converged on the suspect's location. The suspect fled through yards and over fences attempting to escape. After a lengthy foot chase, Maple Heights officers caught the suspect and took him into custody.

The suspect was identified as 33-year-old James Pyles of Maple Heights. Pyles was arrested and transported to the MHPD jail. Subsequent investigation identified him as the suspect in both cases. He is awaiting arraignment on two counts of gross sexual imposition, according to the release.

Maple Heights detectives are continuing the investigation and anyone with information is urged to call 216-587-9624 or email detectives@mhpdo-hio.com. Tips can also be made anonymously through Crime Stoppers by calling 216-252-7463, texting TIP657 plus your message to 274637, or online at www.25crime.com.
