"For example," Elkins said, "there is a house on E. 38 St. that has been condemned and has had a large, red "Condemned" sign posted on the front door for a year, but the county's assessment shows that the value of the home has increased since the last reappraisal a few years ago. We hope that the process can be redesigned to better reflect the actual value of the village's buildings."

Our View

Good, Bad & Ugly

UGLY: Events in recent weeks in Slavic Village neighborhoods have left many searching for answers to the violent crimes being committed against senior citizens in their own homes. Who can forget the image of a 94-year-old Honduran woman staying on Gertrude Avenue reportedly being beaten and smothered to death in her bed last month and her 74-year-old daughter suffering serious head injuries in the attack by a robber who got away with a few pieces of jewelry and electronics.

And the same week, this time on East 65th Street, another violent home invasion of a senior couple occurred, which netted the robber a paltry $60 and scared the 64-year-old woman and her 72-year-old husband so bad responding police noted their extreme distress in their report.

No suspects have as yet been arrested in either case.

The Kiwanis Club of South East Cleveland, in conjunction with Ward 12 Councilman (and Kiwanian) Tony Brancatelli, is planning a free senior safety program to help our elderly deal with these important concerns. More details will be made available when the program is finalized.

GOOD: On September 20th, thousands of fathers throughout Cuyahoga County participated in the annual Fathers' Walk, sponsored by the Healthy Fathering Collaborative of Greater Cleveland. Fathers, uncles, grandfathers, stepfathers, foster fathers, brothers and mentors escorted their little ones to school to show support for them and their education.

What a wonderful way for fathers and father figures throughout our communities to highlight the roles of fathers in a child's education and the value of learning and importance of reaching their potential.

Seeking photos of soldiers killed in Vietnam Conflict

Wall of Faces volunteers are seeking to locate photos of all the fallen heroes whose names appear on the Vietnam Veterans Memorial Wall in Washington, DC. To date over 53,000 photos have been collected of the 58,315 on the wall.

All of these photos will be submitted to the Wall of Faces online memorial on the Vietnam Veterans Memorial Fund website, as well as in the future Education Center that will be adjacent to the Vietnam Veterans Memorial.

In Cuyahoga County, photos of the following fallen heroes are still needed:

Russell W. Eggert, 1949-1968, Cleveland

James H. Gray, 1936-1966, Cleveland

Albert Hall, 1949-1970, Cleveland

David W. Hartley, 1944-1966, Garfield Heights

Clarence Medley, 1939-1966, Cleveland

Wilbert Owens, 1948-1969, Cleveland

Eugene H. Stepp, 1947-1968, Cleveland

Sammy Williams, 1946-1967, Cleveland

Raymond D. Woodson, 1949-1970, Cleveland

Please submit photos or information to Janna Hoehn at neverforgotten2014@gmail.com. Even for those who do not have photos, knowing which school any of these men attended would be helpful.

From the courtroom...

James Pyles, 33, of Maple Heights, was sentenced to eight years in prison by Judge David Matia last week for two counts of gross sexual imposition and one count of attempted kidnapping, according to Cuyahoga County court records.

Pyles was arrested on April 13, 2018 after a 17-year-old girl said she had been dropped off near Maple Heights High School and was approached by Pyles from behind. She said he groped her while walking with her and telling her she was pretty, according to police. She was able to get away from Pyles and call her father who then called police. Officers were on patrol in the area and were able to locate Pyles. He was arrested after a lengthy foot pursuit.

Police said the first incident happened on April 9th, around 6:40 a.m. at Stafford Park. It was reported that Pyles approached a 13-year-old girl while she was walking to school through the parking lot, grabbed her and touched her inappropriately while she was walking. He told her how good looking she was and told her to keep walking, according to police. Pyles then fled when a car drove by through the parking lot.

Pyles is considered a Tier II sex offender and, when not incarcerated, he must register his residence, employment or school addresses with the county sheriff for a period of 25 years, according to court records.

GHPD arrests purse snatcher

Garfield Heights police arrested a 30-year-old Cleveland resident after he allegedly snatched a woman's purse from her vehicle and fled on East 96th Street last week, according to a Garfield Heights police report.

Around 10:50 a.m. Friday, Sept. 28, police were dispatched to the 4800 block of E. 96th St. and spoke to a woman who said she was getting into her car when she noticed a man standing at the end of her driveway. She said that after a brief conversation the man opened the passenger door of her vehicle, snatched her purse that had been sitting on the seat, and fled southbound towards Crudele Park.

The woman immediately called police and gave them a description. "Garfield dispatchers quickly obtained and relayed the suspect description to officers who responded to the area within a minute," according to a post on the Garfield Heights Police Department's Facebook page.

Police found the man in a backyard on David Road. "Officers, recognizing the description of the suspect, responded to his last known address where the male was apprehended in the backyard," according to the Facebook post. He had several credit cards with the victim's name on them and $26 in cash. The victim positively identified him and he was arrested, according to the report.

A Shaker Heights K9 was called to search for the victim's purse in Crudele Park and found it in a brush line between the park and the backyard on David Road. Her belongings were returned to her.

The suspect is being charged with theft and was held on a $3500 bond. Police said the man had several active warrants with Seneca, Mansfield, Richland, Mentor on the Lake and Kent police departments.

"Thank you to the victim for maintaining their composure, contacting police immediately, and providing an excellent description," said the GHPD post.

Hot sauce from Boys & Girls Club is now on sale

A hot sauce made with four kinds of peppers grown by teens in Club Crops, the Boys & Girls Clubs of Cleveland farm program, is now for sale at the Broadway Club, 6114 Broadway Ave., Cleveland.

Local Hotness, the BGCC-branded sauce, was made in partnership with Lyndhurst-based Pope's Kitchen. It includes four different types of hot peppers grown and harvested by teens in the Boys & Girls Clubs of Cleveland farm program: jalapeno, cayenne, serrano and habanero.

The sauce, which is $6 a bottle, is currently for sale at the Club from 1-6 p.m. Monday through Thursday. Farm manager Hannah Bidigare-Curtis said she hopes to soon start selling the sauce in local stores.

"This is such a valuable experience for the teens," Bidigare-Curtis said. "Seeing something they've grown made into a new purchasable product adds a whole other layer to the farm program. It also helps extend our program by giving us a shelf-stable product to sell throughout the winter. We absolutely love our partnership with Pope's Kitchen, and we hope to soon partner with other local businesses to create a variety of Club Crops products."

Teens in the farm program are excited about the partnership.

"When Pope's and Club Crops get together, magic happens," said Keyonte Kern, a Club Crops worker. "Some hot sauce is hot, some hot sauce is spicy, but our hot sauce is blazin'."

Nieasia Wagner added, "Hot sauce made by us feels great. We're basically famous."

This is the second year in which BGCC collaborated with Pope's Kitchen to make hot sauce

Club Crops is one of the largest Boys & Girls Club horticulture operations in the country. Each spring, approximately 10 teens are hired to work at the farm. They also learn marketing and entrepreneurship skills by selling produce throughout the summer and fall at area farmers markets.

Looking back

Time flies. Here is a look back at some notable happenings in our communities over last 5 to 10 years.

September marked 10 years since the Wal-Mart store at City View Shopping Center in Garfield Heights closed its doors and five years since the new library opened on Turney Road.

September also marked five years since the city of Garfield Heights was lifted from "fiscal emergency." It had been under fiscal emergency since 2008.

Five years ago, the statue of Bedford baseball legend Elmer Flick was unveiled in Bedford Commons and the Cuyahoga Valley National Park was closed due to the shutdown of the federal government caused by a lapse in appropriations.

October marks 10 years since the opening of the Cleveland Clinic Sports Health Center on Transportation Boulevard in Garfield Heights.

The end of October marks 10 years since three individuals and four companies were accused of being responsible for over $5.8 million in fraudulent loans for 78 houses in the Slavic Village area.

Honoring Your Cherished Pets Memory

by Tammy Parnell

It's true, dogs really do bless our home. The emotions and thoughts of loss and grief inundated my mind like a constant flood. A stream that didn't want to stop. Tremendous pain comes with having to make the decision to end the life of a dog you love so much, a constant companion. We struggle with that end-of-life decision, but do we really have anything to feel guilty about? Are we just creating more heartache for ourselves? So, in thinking to myself, "You left and forgot to tell my heart how to go on without you", I began reaching out to other pet owners on a Facebook page, Rainbow Bridge Memorial Jewelry, and we began the process of learning and listening to hurting pet owners. Memorial jewelry allows us to remember our pets at their best, always by our side as they were in life. We love to incorporate pet owner's ideas.

Flushing out facts at NEORSD Southerly sewer open house

Hundreds of residents toured the Northeast Ohio Regional Sewer District's wastewater treatment facility at its Open House last month in Cuyahoga Heights.

Ever wonder what happens after you flush the toilet? Hundreds of people who attended last month's open house at the Northeast Ohio Regional Sewer District's Southerly wastewater treatment plant in Cuyahoga Heights found out!

Those attending were invited on tours of the facility to see how the sewer district treats more than 125 million gallons of water every day of the year.

Event highlights also included viewing the one-of-a-kind sewer simulator, cost-saving program information, updates on green infrastructure, construction projects and Project Clean Lake, rain barrel, rain garden and stormwater credit information as well as hands-on exhibits and experiments.

Kids were treated to face painting, balloons, crafts, games, prizes, Jungle Terry and his petting zoo, touching the work trucks and a visit from Zach the Mad Scientist and lots more.

Who would have thought an open house by the Sewer District could be so interesting - and fun!
