Last week three men were charged in a fatal 2017 shooting that took place in the North Broadway neighborhood of Cleveland.

Daniel White, 39; Danzel Washington, 27; and Norman Ross, 23, were charged with murder in a shooting near Mead Avenue that happened on September 4, 2017, according to court records.

A preliminary hearing is scheduled for White on April 8. Washington and Ross have warrants issued but are not in custody.

I-77 south exit ramp to Rt. 21 to be closed April 15 for 100 days

On Monday, April 15, the I-77 southbound exit ramp to Rt. 21 (Brecksville Rd.) in Cuyahoga Heights will close for 100 days in order to replace the exit ramp bridge. Motorists will be detoured via I-77 south to I-480 eastbound to Rt. 17 (Granger Rd.) to Rt. 21 (Brecksville Rd.).

Temporary complete closures of I-77 north and south may take place to accommodate bridge demolition and construction operations. Detours will be posted.

The project was awarded to J.D. Williamson Construction Company, Inc. for $7,848,580 and is expected to be completed in June 2019.

New felony sex charges for ex-Cleveland officer

A former Cleveland police officer who was charged with two felony sex offenses in February stemming from an incident in Garfield Heights is now facing a 21-count indictment with new charges.

On March 8, 2019, Mario Lozada, 55, now retired from the force, was indicted on sex offense charges for paying a 15-year-old girl to engage in sexual activity, according to Ryan Miday in the Cuyahoga County prosecutor's office.

The indictment also charged Lozada with underage alcohol use for purchasing alcohol for the girl. The twelve charges in the indictment include four counts of unlawful sexual conduct with a minor, two counts of pandering sexually-oriented matter involving a minor, four counts of compelling prostitution, one count of improperly handling firearms in a motor vehicle and one count of underage alcohol use.

Since the indictment, CPD Internal Affairs' continuing investigation revealed that Lozada unlawfully accessed the law enforcement automated database system (LEADS), Miday said.

The investigation also identified a 17-year-old girl from whom Lozada solicited nude photos, according to Miday. Lozada was reindicted by a grand jury on additional charges including eight counts of illegal use of minor in nudity-oriented material or performance and one count of unauthorized use of property.

Lozada is scheduled to appear at an April 9 arraignment hearing, according to court records.

His previous charges include pandering sexually oriented material involving a minor and unlawful sexual conduct with a minor. They stem from a July 13th incident near Jack C. Donovan Park in Garfield Heights in which police discovered Lozada in an SUV with a then 14-year-old girl.

Azlan Smith awarded Mayor's Trophy at Garfield Hts. Ice Show

The 2019 Cinema Skates 51st annual Ice Show in Garfield Heights, held on Saturday, March 23, brought in a crowd of well over 300 people. Music for the skaters was from movies directed by MGM, Walt Disney Productions, Dreamworks, Lionsgate, Universal Pictures, Paramount Pictures, Warner Bros. Studios, and Fox Productions. Some of the group number titles included songs from "Ghostbusters," "Beetlejuice," "The Greatest Showman," "Bring it On," "Shrek" and "American Graffiti."

Congratulations to the 2019 Mayor's Trophy Winner - Azlan Smith, who skated a solo from the movie "Annie."

Azlan is a 14-year-old eighth grader who lives in Garfield Heights and attends Garfield Heights Middle School. She is the daughter of Dan and Shannon Smith of Garfield Heights.

Azlan was seven-years-old when she registered for the Learn to Skate program and has been skating ever since. She loves being on the ice and has two brothers, Zion, 15, and Journey, 11, who love to cheer her on every time she skates. In the future, Azlan would love to coach younger children, perform in Disney on Ice, and become a teacher or nurse.

When she's not skating Azlan can be found volunteering at Momentum Church, playing with her big dog, Sully, studying for tests or hanging out with her family and friends.

Mark your calendars for next year's 52nd annual Ice Show, scheduled for March 29th, that will be "magical!"

CMSD to host community input meetings

The Cleveland Municipal School District is hosting community meetings this month to seek public input on its future plans.

It released a citywide analysis, available at qualityschoolsforCLEkids.org, that includes data reflecting academic quality, enrollment trends and forecasts, and building use and conditions across the city. The analysis will allow the community to use the same information district and charter school leaders consider when assessing how best to plan for quality schools in every neighborhood, according to the district. It provides data at three different levels — citywide, by region and at the school level — for both district and charter K-8 and high schools.

The report does not, however, make recommendations. It is meant to help educators, community members and families work from the same set of facts and engage together in thoughtful planning, the district said.

When users visit the website, they can also access an interactive tool to explore their own region, a user guide, a schedule of public meetings, frequently asked questions and a form for questions and comments.

The analysis and meetings come because the board of education is revisiting the district's master facilities plan.

Cleveland's population patterns have changed since the plan was last updated five years ago, and the board wants to ensure that the taxpayers' investment matches community needs, according to the district.

Therefore, the district said it is taking this opportunity to better align its academic and facilities decision-making.

CMSD CEO Eric Gordon will lead a series of public meetings in April. The schedule is on the website and also on a postcard being mailed citywide and cited below. The remaining meetings include:

- Southeast: 4 p.m., Thursday, April 4, Third Federal Savings, 7007 Broadway Avenue

- West: 1:30 p.m., Saturday, April 6, Max S. Hayes High School, 2211 W. 65th Street

- Northeast: 1:30 p.m., Saturday, April 13, Collinwood Recreation Center, 16300 Lake Shore Boulevard

- Southwest: 6 p.m., Wednesday, April 17, New Tech West High School, 11801 Worthington Avenue

- Near West: 6 p.m., Thursday, April 11, and 6 p.m., Thursday, April 18, Garrett Morgan High School, 4016 Woodbine Avenue

Counterfeit money

The man said he noticed the bills while driving past the area. The money looked real so he decided to bring it to the police department.

GARFIELD HEIGHTS

Theft

On Tuesday, March 26th, a theft report was filed stating that the pastor of a Cleveland church had gotten a call from someone saying they were representing Ohio Edison and that the church's power would be turned off if he did not pay $1,000. The pastor's mother, who paid the bills for the church, was given a phone number to contact Ohio Edison and was given instructions to go to the Sunoco gas station at Turney and Rockside rds. and deposit the $1,000 in a Bitcoin ATM located there. The woman followed instructions but the ATM would only accept $800, prompting her to believe she had been scammed and contacting police.

Theft from Auto

On Wednesday, March 27th, a resident of the 4600 block of E. 104 St. reported that sometime during the night someone had cut the padlock off the back doors of his work van and stolen $1,500 worth of tools inside.
